

BRUCK FUSCH
GROSSGLOCKNER

Ski tour Imbachhorn, 2.470 m

Details of the tour:

Altitude difference: 1.700 hm

Walking time: approx. 4.5 hours

Starting point: 5672 Fusch, Judendorf, Hotel Ponyhof

Maximum steepness: 35 degrees

Tour time: entire winter

Highlight: View from the summit to the Zeller See and Hoher Tenn

Route: From Judendorf ascend via a path or directly to the Judendorfmalm (1367m). Continue over flat slopes until there is an opportunity to turn left through a sparse forest below the Rosskopf (2152m). The Rosskopf is crossed to the north just below the summit. Then continue across open areas to the Bächenanderlscharte. Short descent from the Scharte and traverse to the west below the steep summit slope of the Imbachhorn to the south ridge. Continue north to the summit.

Descent: As ascent

Weather info: Find out about the weather situation in the touring area before each tour, e.g. at www.wetter.orf.at or www.zamg.at

Avalanche information: Before each tour, find out about the current avalanche situation in the touring area, e.g. at www.lawine.salzburg.at.

In any case, avoid ski tours when there is a warning for avalanche danger.

The use of this tour description is at your own risk. A liability for any accidents and damages is not assumed for any legal reason.